

Eric K James

509 Sabal Lake Dr. Apt 101, Longwood, FL 32779
321-626-3867 | erickylejames@gmail.com

Education

University of Central Florida
Bachelor of Science in Computer Engineering

December 2017

Professional Experience

Sigma Sourcing, LLC

May 2017 - Present

Web Developer

- Developed and managed UI/UX for purchasing web application with 100+ active users
- Combined multiple stylesheets into a dynamic CSS file, and other tasks using ASP.NET Razor Syntax
 - Receive ajax requests and deliver cached or generated content to end users
 - Collaborated on notification delivery system with responsive Razor email templates
 - Generate PDF reports using Razor pages to control user input and filter data
- Created full-stack modules for processing vendor invoices by using jQuery and JavaScript and other administrative tasks.
 - Developed visualization capability to display server validation information to end user more efficiently and effectively.
- Added new, and upgraded existing, software platform frameworks and technologies to enhance web security, mitigate SQL injection and other database related vulnerabilities
- Continued to improve project processes throughout the SDLC. Developed and created software development plans and test plans
- Maintained positive client relationships through direct communications planning/discussing new/existing features or upcoming application improvements
- Maintained high efficiency while collaborating with remote developers and ensured deliverables and schedules are met

Technical Skills

- | | | |
|---------------------|------------|------------------------|
| • jQuery/JavaScript | • ASP.NET | • Internet Information |
| • MSSQL | • HTML/CSS | Services (IIS) |
| • C# | • SVN/GIT | • Windows OS |
| • Java | | |

Additional Skills

- Xamarin/Android Development
- Experience using Adobe CC (PS, Premiere)